

Published October 8, 2021, 4:00 p.m.

GREEK DREAM ISLAND

10 insider tips for Santorini

Santorini is one of the most beautiful islands in Europe. But which hotel should you book, where to eat and which excursions should you take?

We'll show you.

from Martin Hoch

First of all, a short explanation of the four most popular places on the crater wheel: If you are looking for peace and quiet and stylish surroundings, then Imerovigli is the place for you. If you want a little more but not too much life, the Firostefani next door will suit you. The capital Firá, on the other hand, is lively touristy. And Oia is beautiful and incredibly touristy at the same time.

It is pleasant that Santorini from Zurich several times a week from Edelweiss Air is directly approached in just 2:40 hours. And these are our eight insider tips and two don'ts for Santorini.

2 - The most spectacular restaurant in Santorini

The restaurant Lycabettus in Oia offers a unique view - a place for a romantic dinner.
Andronis Luxury Suites

On a rock high above the Aegean Sea, in the back the rim of the crater to which the small white houses nestle - the location of the Lycabettus restaurant is simply unique. If you book here, you want to spend a special evening. The food is served in multiple courses and comes as a high-quality fine dining experience. If you want to spend the night here, you can. Because the restaurant is part of the hotel Andronis Luxury Suites . Breakfast is also a lot of fun here.

You can put together your own breakfast in the Andronis Luxury Suites - really delicious.

Martin Hoch

The delicacies selected by yourself are served directly to your room - all of which have an unobstructed view of the sea and their own pool.

Instead of being in the overcrowded hotel restaurant, you can enjoy breakfast on your own terrace.

Martin Hoch