

Business Traveller

SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2021 £4.30

JET POWERED

How private aviation has thrived in testing times

BEDDING IN

Top new hotels to try in Asia-Pacific

FLIGHT FOOTPRINT

Why sustainable fuel is crucial to cutting airline emissions

PLUS

Rail • Bangkok
• Travel & Tested reviews

SPLASHING OUT

Luxury villa rentals in Europe's finest locations

9 770706 00024 6

LUXURY VILLAS FOR STYLISH STAYS

After the last 18 months of lockdowns and staycations, we're all overdue a holiday abroad – so treat yourself, and the more lavishly the better

SANTORINI, GREECE

With the Andronis Arcadia resort in Sarnorini, five minutes' walk from the village of Oia, you have the privacy of a villa with all the benefits of a hotel. Spanning over 600 sqm, the three-storey Eden Villa has direct sunset views and a colour palette of white, sand and turquoise. It has six bedrooms, two private pools, its own fitness centre and spa rooms, and a fully equipped modern kitchen. If you want something smaller, the resort also includes suites through to four-bedroom villas. The hotel has an Eresia Spa, developed in partnership with Denise Leiccor, founder of organic skincare brand Ila Spa.

DETAILS: Price per week from £21,000, sleeps 12.

Andronis Arcadia: andronis.com/hotels/andronis-arcadia

ABOVE:

Sunset views from Eden Villa at the Andronis Arcadia resort in Greece

TUSCANY, ITALY

Podere Celli is an historic Tuscan home ideal for large groups. Surrounded by extensive grounds and gardens, it has a 16 metre-long swimming pool built in travertine stone, with a pergola facing it furnished with sofas and sun loungers – the perfect spot for watching the Tuscan sunset. At the heart of the property is an open-plan living room, divided by archways into