LUXURY VILLAS FOR STYLISH STAYS

After enduring lockdowns and staycations, we're all overdue for a lavish sojourn in one of southern Europe's legendary playgrounds

SANTORINI, GREECE

With the Andronis Arcadia resort in Santorini, five minutes' walk from the village of Oia, you have the privacy of a villa with all the benefits of a hotel. Spanning over 7,100 square feet, the three-story Eden Villa has direct sunset views and a color palette of white, sand and turquoise. It has six bedrooms, two private pools, its own fitness center and spa room, and a fully equipped modern kitchen. If you want something smaller, the resort also includes suites through to four-bedroom villas. The hotel has an Eresia Spa, developed in partnership with Denise Leicester, founder of organic skincare brand Illa Spa.

DETAILS: Price per week from $29,000; sleeps 12.

Sunset views from Eden Villa at the Andronis Arcadia resort in Greece

ideal for large groups. Surrounded by extensive grounds and gardens, it has a 16-meter swimming pool built in travertine stone, with a pergola facing it furnished with sofas and sun loungers – the perfect spot for watching the Tuscan sunset. At the heart of the property is an open-plan living room, divided by archways into sitting and dining areas, with two large fireplaces. The highlight is the kitchen which has a wood oven, designed for avid cooks,
