With the arrival of spring, the appetite for European getaways has well and truly taken off. With this in mind, we're pleased to share a selection of luxury hotels across the continent, all re-opening for the summer season ahead.

From a quiet corner of the Costa Brava, the rolling hills of Tuscany to the cliff tops of Santorini and the shores of Lake Como, there's no better place to spend long summer days and balmy evenings than the Mediterranean.

Here are the top picks from the LLM travel team.

Andronis Arcadia, Oia, Santorini

Andronis Arcadia is every person's dream offering a suite villa with a private pool

Why visit now? Re-opening on April 25. For contemporary design lovers and families in search of space, spa and fewer crowds.

One of the island's only ultra-luxury family welcoming hotels, Andronis Arcadia is a rare find. Families can enjoy yoga, kids' spa treatments, cooking lessons, tennis, hiking trails and photo safaris. Each of the sugar cube villas, with soothing neutral colour palettes, ranging from one to four bedrooms, each boasting its own private pool, spacious living areas, local artwork and sustainable design (over 90 per cent of the furniture was made inside the hotel using locally sourced materials). A 10-minute walk from the main pedestrian strip of Oia (possibly the world's most Instagrammed village), Andronis Arcadia sits away from the crowds on the caldera edge with unobstructed sunset views and masses of space.

Rates from: £425 per night for a suite.

Why visit now? Re-opening on April 10. A hidden, hilltop wellness escape (with a blow-dry bar and new CBD spa treatments).

Set on one of the highest points of Santorini, Andronis Concept blends seamlessly into the hillside and resultantly offers the utmost privacy – it's no wonder several Hollywood A-listers visit every summer. Each suite has an ocean-facing infinity pool, with breathtaking sunsets and sunrises when the sky turns shades of pink. A hiking path runs parallel to the property and wellness experts offer daily hikes, yoga, tennis, personal training, nutritionist-approved Greek cookery lessons, and new – CBD treatments using Ila's concentrate balm which is known to alleviate inflammation and numb pain caused by trauma.

Rates from: £315 per night for a suite.
