These 10 Luxury Santorini Hotels Are a Must for Every Travel Bucket List

Think whitewashed walls, world-renowned cuisine, and sunset views—right from your hotel room.

Few destinations have the mass appeal, mythological beauty, or frame-worthy photo potential of Santorini. The ultimate tourism darling and a requisite stop on any well-planned Cyclades island-hopping itinerary, the idyllic Greek destination is beloved for its white cubiform architecture, blue-domed churches, and sunsets over the caldera. More than just a stunning xeric backdrop for vacation selfies, Santorini is prime for immersing yourself in Greek culture through its wineries, tavernas, and warm hospitality.

While its status as a summer hotspot means the villages of Oia and Fira are teeming with visitors in the peak months, for many travelers, it's worth contending with crowds to laze on the black-sand beaches and soak up the sunshine. Those keen to avoid the busy period might want to consider a shoulder season trip in the spring or fall to take advantage of the pleasant, milder weather and steer clear of the tourist parade.

Whatever time of year you decide to visit, having a fabulous place to post up in this Aegean paradise is a must. From resorts with swim-up suites to boutique cave accommodations, these are the best hotels in Santorini.

Andronis Arcadia

Situated steps from the center of Oia—close enough for easy access but in a location that allows for space to breathe even during the busy period—Andronis Arcadia blends sun-bleached hues, contemporary Grecian style, and resort amenities. The spacious suites and villas are equipped with luxurious modern comforts such as king beds, sofas to relax with a good book, and plunge pools. There's a divine spa for massages, facials, and hydrotherapy. It's also home to Pacman Restaurant for sushi and sunset views, as well as the carnivorous chic Beefbar Santorini.

Fans of swish boutique hotels will flip for the intimacy, refinement, and relaxed charm of Andronis Luxury Suites. Tucked in the cliffs of Oia, the timeless Santorini sanctuary is a haven of bespoke luxury and personalized service. It has 39 suites and villas, each with a private infinity pool or hot tub, sun loungers, and breathtaking vistas of the Aegean Sea. There are plenty of posh perks for choosy types, such as a pillow menu and a choice of toiletries (Aпивita, Hermes, or Molton Brown), plus rejuvenating spa treatments and sommelier-led wine tastings.
